STATE OF ILLINOIS, } ss

THE BOOK JIM WROTE ABOUT DOLLS.

Some doll's heads are made of wood; these are called wooden dolls. Wood comes from trees, which are found in the country. Trees have leaves also: they grow up, but dolls do not grow.—Some trees are pine, some apple, some pine-apple, and some murhoggany, a hard word to spell. These heads are very hard, and you can pound them without harting.

Some doll's heads are made of wax, and are called wax-dolls. The wax comes from a little animal called the bee, that has wings. Sometimes it is called the busy bee, because it buzzes. The bee does not make the dolls, but the wax. It goes in a straight line to a flower, and pokes the honey out with its sting. Then you feel glad because you are not the flower, because the sting hurts—it does—that is the way it makes the wax. But it is not good to put these dolls in the sun or over a furnace.

Some dolls are made all over of India rubber, and you can fling them about anyhow. They grow on a tree, the India rubber does, in India, where they make India rubber boots. It is a good kind to have, because you can throw it about like a ball. But then the face is painted and may rub off—some noses do.

Then there's China dolls, made of what tea sets are; but they don't come from the China where they make the fire-works, though they do make the tea.—St. Nicholas.

AVERAGE VALUE OF HORSES.

According to the figures of Mr. Statistician Dodge, of the Agricultural Bureau at Washington, the average cash value of horses in the United States, in February of each year for the past six years, was as follows: 1868, $75,16; 1869, $84,16; 1870, $81,38; 1871, $73,51: 1872, $73,37; 1873; 74,56. The average value of mules during the same period was: 1868, $77,61; 1869, $106,74; 1870, $109,-01; 1871, $101,52; 1872, $94,82; 1873, $95,24. Horses, it will be seen, ruled highest in February, 1869, while mules went highest in February 1870, owing to there being a demand at the time for the hybrids to be used in plowing for the great cotton crop. But generally speaking there has been a gradual decline from war prices since the beginning of the year 1869. There was a temporary advance last February, caused by the prostration of work animals by influenza. As the annual consumption of mules and horses is very great, it is scarcely probable that the average horse or mule of the future will sell for a less price than the average horse or mule of to-day.

"I don't see," said Mrs. Partington, as Ike came home from school and threw his books into one chair, and his jacket into another, and his cap on the floor, saying that he didn't get the medal—"I don't see, dear, why you didn't get the medal, for certainly a more meddlesome boy I never knew. But no matter—when the adversary comes round again you will get it."

Jones had worried Smith with conundrums very often, and now it was Smith's turn. "Guess what I did last night?" said Smith. Jones thought of sundry improbable things, and suggested the making of a speech, the doing of a kindness, the getting himself into the lock-up, and finally gave up the conundrum in despair. "Well," said Smith, in a triumphant tone, "I slept!"

In Dover N. H., on Thursday, a $100 bill actually paid debts to the amount of $1,000 and within 8 hours returned to the man who first paid it out in the morning. It happened that A owed B $100. He paid it. B owed C $100, so he paid the bill over to him. Thus it went, and the ninth gentleman to whom it was paid happening to owe A $100, paid it to him, so that it paid all these debts and came back to its original owner.

A discovery has just been made in the excavations at a Pompeii of another skeleton, apparently that of a man of about fifty years of age. The cast formed in the ashes was admirable, and is, in fact, much more exact than those hitherto found. The supposition is that the deceased was ill, and that his strength failing him in his flight, he lay down, resting his cheek on his left hand, such being the position in which he was found.

A man in Kentucky, all alive and well, recently saw a statement of his own death in a newspaper. He did not so much resent the general statement as the inaccuracy of the details; and so he wrote to the editor: "Sir, I notice a few errors in the obituary of myself which appeared in your paper of Monday last. I was born in Greenup county, not Caldwell; and my retirement from business in 1860 was not owing to ill health, but to a little trouble I had in connection with a horse. The cause of my death was not smallpox. Please make correction, for which I inclose fifty cents." Could anything be more exquisite as a Hibernicism than the statement about the cause of his death?—New York Tribune.

DECATUR, ILLINOIS:

Wednesday Evening, Nov. 12.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

The following proclamation has been promulgated by the President of the United States:

A PROCLAMATION — The approaching close of another year brings with it occasion for renewed thanksgiving and acknowledgement to the Almighty Ruler of the universe for the mercies which he has bestowed upon us. Abundant harvests have been among the rewards of industry; with local exceptions, health has been among the many blessings enjoyed; tranquility at home and peace with other nations have prevailed; frugality and industry are gaining their merited position and reward under the providence of God, surely as we trust, and the nation is recovering from the lingering result of the dreadful civil strife. For these and all other mercies vouchsafed it becomes us as a people, to return hearty and grateful acknowledgements, and with our thanksgiving for the blessings we may unite prayers for the cessation of local and temporary suffering. I therefore recommend that on Thursday, the 27th day of November, the people meet in their respective places of worship to make their acknowledgement to Almighty God for his bounties and his protection, and offer to him prayers for their continuance:

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed. Done at the City of Washington, this 15th day of October, in the year of our Lord, 1873, and of the Independence of the United States the ninety-seventh. U. S. GRANT.

By the President,
HAMILTON FISH, Secretary of State.

STATE OF ILLINOIS,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
SPRINGFIELD, October 23, 1873.

In obedience to custom, and in conformity with the action of the President, I, John L. Beveridge, Governor of the State of Illinois, do appoint THURSDAY, the 27th day of November next, a day of Thanksgiving to Almighty God for the mercies and blessings of another year. Let all the people give thanks in the sanctuary, rejoice at home, and be glad in their hearts.

SAD CASE OF SUICIDE AT LINCOLN.

Our neighboring city of Lincoln was thrown into intense excitement yesterday, by the announcement that Hon. Wm. McGalliard, of that city, a prominent citizen and a lawyer of ability, had committed suicide by shooting himself in the right temple. The act was committed in his law office at ten o'clock yesterday morning. Mr. McGalliard was a single man and only 39 years of age, and had, by good business habits and the practice of his profession, acquired considerable property. For some years past he has suffered from dyspepsia, and had but recently returned from Europe, where he had been in hopes of regaining his health. Since his return it has been evident to his friends that his mind was affected, and on the evening of the fatal day he was to have gone to the Insane Asylum at Jacksonville for treatment.

Mr. McGalliard represented Logan and Sangamon counties in the State legislature in 1867. He was also, formerly, Master in Chancery for Logan county. His loss is deeply felt in the community where he had so long resided. His funeral occurs this afternoon. The sympathies of the citizens of Logan county will mingle with those of his near relatives in this their deep affliction.

INSINCERITY OF GRUMBLERS.

The Chicago Inter-Ocean makes the following good points against the farmers of Wisconsin:

"Thus do the people of that State reward a faithful public servant! The farmers of Wisconsin denounced the Credit Mobilier ring. Mr. Washburn had done so before them. They demanded reform in railway legislation. He had already taken advanced ground upon that question. They condemned the salary bill. His record in opposition to it was all they could wish. They wanted economy in public expenditures. He had set them an example which other States had pointed to as a model for their own officials to follow. All this, and yet they permitted his defeat. The result shows that not alone the Republic, but the States composing it, may be ungrateful."

Coming – Skiff & Gaylord's Minstrels have billed the city for one of their splendid entertainments, at the Opera House, on the evening of the 20th inst. This is emphatically the great minstrel troupe of the country. They always draw big houses here and will do so at this visit. Joe Gaylord, the general agent, called upon us yesterday. He is a worthy representative of the splendid show whose advent he comes to herald.

DES MOINES, Iowa, November 11.—There is much suffering reported in the northwestern part of the State, especially in Osceola and Lyon counties, among the settlers of the past year, owing to the destruction of all their crops by the grasshoppers. Many families are without clothing or food to last a month, and they have no means wherewith to purchase. An earnest appeal is made for help from the older counties of the State.

FROM NIANTIC.

NIANTIC, ILL., Nov. 10, 1873.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—In glancing over the last few copies of the Tribune I came on a article headed "Niantic News." I was much pleased to think that we had someone that was able to let the world know that we had a being; but after reading it I was rather mortified than otherwise to think that a person of ordinary intelligence would think of sending an article so full of mis-statements to be published in a county paper, and accordingly expressed myself so, and spoke of it as weak and like a poor crop of corn, as a soft crop, when behold in the next issue he speaks of H. A Williams as making sport of the Niantic news, I am extremely sorry I ever said anything about it, for I do not wish to injure your correspondent's reputation. I always appreciate talent if it does consist in giving the weight of the neighbors or the seize of their feet and hog pens, I would not take one laurel from that brow so honestly earned or say one word to injure his fame as a writer. I would be willing to take him by the hand and say "well done, good and faithful, for of such are our houses of Congress filled.' But what can I do, not knowing who it is that hides himself behind a screen for the purpose of vilifying those that may love him, who signs himself "Z," which may stand for Zany or Zero, it matters not which. It is impossible to make that apology that may be due to a person of his merit. Now do come out and let me know who you are, and your reputation is made; you are too modest, the world will never know who is the author of the article signed Z, and you will descend to your grave unhonored and unsung, but if you choose to remain in obscurity you are mistaken; others have tried that before you; but the demand for well written articles has been so great that they have been compelled to come out. Your remark about my specs (I said) was my misfortune, and that weak minded people were apt to ridicule the infirmities of others. I am sorry I said it and take it all back, for I know now, from observation, your mind is strong or it could not blow on the bass drum and wear the red collar. Now I have made all the acknowledgments I think necessary for the present, and hope you will take it in that christian manner that so much becomes you, and in the future if you will leave my name out of your articles, for I am not [illegible] notoriety, am not a candidate for [illegible] had rather remain in my humble [illegible]ty of private citizen, at peace with the world, wishing you heaps of [illegible] and abstain from all further controversy, with a stray anything about your [illegible] watch, will not tell you wanted the State Phrenologist sent for when the boys raised the mastodon; to this and more I pledge myself, and again ask your pardon, and if you see proper to contribute more do the best you can, but avoid personalities and miss statements

And if the article is rich and rare
I'll not wonder how the devil it got there.

Loss of an Ocean Steamer.

Wisconsin Election Returns.

NEW YORK, November 11—The loss of the ocean steamship Ismalia is fully credited at the Ship News Exchange. She sailed for the Mediterranean on the 26th of September, with a heavy load of freight, but carried no passengers. The last that was seen of her was on the 2d ultimo, when she was stopped off the coast of Nova Scotia by a sailing vessel that was short of provisions. The vessel and cargo were valued at nearly $500,000.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., November 11.—The committee to revise the statutes of the State, composed of Senators Upton and Steele, and Representatives Hay, Dunham and Rountree, met in the Supreme Court Library, in this city, this morning, with Representative Hay in the chair. Their labors are of no particular interest until their work shall be completed.

The Rev. Newman Hall, of London, preached last night in the Congregational church, and this morning in the First Presbyterian church, to crowded houses. He received from both congregations quite an addition of funds to the amount which he has already obtained to build the Lincoln memorial tower, that is now in process of erection in London. It is to cost $10,000, one-half to be raised in England, and one-half in this country.

The strike of the printers in this city still continues, with no prospect of a settlement

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—A Washington correspondent has had an interview with Secretary Fish in regard to the shooting of the passengers of the Virginius by the Spanish authorities in Cuba, and the Secretary said:

"It was a cold blooded murder, and no one of sound judgment pretends to apologize for the butchery, but the Cubans themselves are a misguided set.—They have had presumed patriots running loose in New York and Washington cities, who had they been made of sterner metal, would have been fighting on the island, instead of manufacturing useless and pseudo enthusiasm in those cities. No one denies that Ryan and his conferees were in the commission of the Cubans. If an American is willing to enter into the service of a foreign power he does so at his own risk, and has no right, at every turn which proves inimical to his own interest or life, to ask for the intervention of the Government which he has voluntarily left to battle for another power. It would have been much more creditable to the Cuban authorities to have kept their officers at home doing service where it was valuable. The battles fought on enthusiasm breathed in Washington and New York will not gain Cuban victories, or add one chaplet to the cause. If they had done more service in Cuba and less elsewhere the cause on the island might to-day present a more flattering aspect. The Cuban warriors should be made of better stuff than those who floated around these cities soliciting aid and encouragment for the insurgent arms." Secretary Fish added that he "sympathized with Cuba, but could not render aid in any manner which would conflict with the comity of nations, and, further, he wanted to see better metal from Cuba than she had sent, before he could hope to hear of their ultimately achieving their independence. In the present juncture of affairs," he said, "the State Department will use the utmost diligence to be advised at the earliest possible moment. After we have the full facts we will act. This Government cannot now act, because it does not have any basis upon which to proceed intelligently. It may be a week yet before the news is presented in an official shape."

NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—The loss of the Lualia is fully credited at the ship news exchange. She sailed for the Mediterranean on the 29th of September with a heavy load but no passengers. The last seen of her was on the 2d ult. when she was spoken off the coast of Nova Scotia by a sailing vessel. She was then short of provisions. The vessel and cargo were valued at nearly $500,000.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—The banks, notwithstanding the withdrawals of currency Saturday, for weekly payments to laborers, &c. have gained in legal tender notes, holding this morning $23,938,000, with one other bank to hear from, which will probably raise the amount to fully $24,000,000. A more hopeful feeling prevails in mercantile circles, and in addition to the stock house already noticed as resuming to-day, other firms of prominence in banking and stock exchange circles are preparing for early resumption.

Various reform measures are being discussed by the banks as to the method of conducting business in future, and the clearing house committee will doubtless report upon the matter very soon. It now seems certain that the committee will declare against the payment of interest on deposits, and also against the certification of bank checks, except when the money is actually on deposit.

The proposition to compel all railways to make to the Stock Exchange full monthly statements meets with general favor.

It appears that since the last bank statement was published, the associated banks have lost in deposits to the extent of $17,000.

MATAMORAS, November 10—Throughout Mexico to day they are celebrating adoption of additional articles to the national constitution, amongst which are the abolition of peonage and the separation of church and state. The military paraded, orations were delivered, and the city is illuminated to night amidst general rejoicing.

HAVANA, Nov. 10.—Advices from St. Thomas to the 5th inst. have been received. News has reached that island that Gen Lugeron, who retired from the leadership of the revolutionary forces in San Domingo two months ago, has been recalled by the Insurgent Chiefs, and will resume his old command. It is supposed that under his leadership the Revolutionists will make a supreme effort and either triumph or be annihilated

MADISON, Wis., November 11—Official returns have been received from twelve counties giving Washburn 23,305 and Taylor 21,895, which is 1,110 votes less than in the same counties in 1871. Taylor's vote is much less than Greeley's, but 764 more than Doolittle's. The Democrats will have about 14,000 majority in the State. The Senate is still in doubt, the election being so close in Green county that it will take the official vote to determine it. If a Democrat is elected it will give them one majority; and if a Republican, then the Republicans will have one majority. The Assembly will be Democratic by twenty majority.

HOW TO START MANUFACTORIES.

The Indianapolis Sentinel, in speaking of building up a manufacturing town uses language which other places may profitably take notice of. It says:

"The secret of success is to begin, not to wait and beg of somebody else to come where there is nothing to extract except space. In the West the property owners generally stick to their lots and want somebody else to crowd wealth and business upon them while they sit still and do nothing.—There are two favorite methods of getting rich in the West. One by holding real estate for an advantage; the other by loaning money at an extravagant rate. Neither of them contemplates a particle of exertion, and that is the darling idea of a western capitalist—to do nothing. He will not invest in manufactories because that envolves administrative labor and ability. A bank suits him better than a factory. But it should be understood that the question of location is essential. The secret of making a town the center of mechanical industry is to select an article of constant, steady demand, and then bravely begin on a small capital if necessary, and the natural, law of association will do the rest."

A LETTER from Havana, November 5, gives the following account of the execution of the Virginius prisoners, at Santiago de Cuba: "The four prisoners were shot at the place made famous by previous executions, and in the usual manner, kneeling close to the slaughter-house wall. All marched to the spot with firmness. Bambetta and Ryan showed marked courage, although the former was slightly affected toward the last. The two others, quite broke down before they were bandaged, but Ryan kept up to the last, never flinched a moment, and died without fear or regret. Bambetta and Ryan were killed at the first discharge.

THE Kankakee Gazette learns that petitions are being prepared for Governor Beveridge's perusal, praying for the commutation of the sentence of Perfect, the Chicago wife-murderer. We indorse the following remarks on the subject: "We hope Governor Beveridge will listen to no such suggestion as a commutation of the sentence of this murderer. Justice has already been sufficiently outraged and the State disgraced by the two years' delay in his favor. Sufficient time, labor and expense have been expended upon him. Either wholly abandon our criminal laws, or execute them. Let the safety and interests of the community be sometimes considered. Convictions in our courts are not so easily obtained as to justify an interposition by the Executive when they have been secured. If Governor Beveridge does his duty, the law will be allowed to take its course

LONDON, November 11.—A dispatch from Paris says it is reported that an extensive plot in favor of the Count de Paris has been discovered in that city, and it is said that the authorities are in possession of documents by which a number of well known politicians are compromised. It is also reported that a deputation of Monarchists is about to proceed to Oulsburg to request the Count de Chambord to abdicate his claims to the throne of France in favor of the Count de Paris.

GENERAL RYAN, the victim of Spain in Cuba, was well-known in Washington, D. C., as a great ladies' man, and created a sensation while promenading the avenue, with his military cape, large Texan braid hat, long curling hair, etc. He always carried a very heavy cane, and was generally accompanied by an unusually large bloodhound, who was a terror to many pedestrians. He frequently had trouble in the hotel lobbies, generally following up a discussion on Cuban matters in that way. He was about twenty-eight years of age, and was well educated.

CONSUMPTION!

AND ITS CURE!

Victims of this awful disease are found in every neighborhood, in almost every house. For them and for their friends, we have tidings of good cheer and hope—the announcement of a most important discovery, firmly based upon common sense and reason, by which the terrible malady is positively controlled, and its victims are restored to health.

WILSON'S

Carbolated Cod Liver Oil

Is not a secret empirical nostrum. It is a happy combination of two remedies known to physicians everywhere as the best means of combating consumption. This combination is Mr. Willson's discovery, and is founded upon the following

SOUND REASONING.

Consumption is decay. Soothing, expectorant remedies are only useful as palliatives, they do not reach the cause—they do not stop the decay. Tonic medicines strengthen the life forces and prolong the battle, but the decay goes steadily on, and sooner or later the victim must yield. Climatic changes are sometimes good, but they seldom wholly cure. In short, the very first thing to be done is to STOP THE DECAY; then apply the restorative, tonic and strength giving treatment. Think a moment. The lungs are decaying—tubercles, ulcerations cavities and deposits of poisonous matter (pus) are forming. The circulation carries this poison all over the body. Wasting, loss of appetite, enervation, night sweats, and all the terrible symptoms appear; is it worth while to doctor the symptoms, which are merely the results, while the decay, which is the cause, is eating up the life springs? These two things are well known by the best physicians:

1st, Carbolic acid positively arrests Decay. It is the most powerful antiseptic in the known world. Even dead bodies are preserved by it. Entering into the circulation, it at once grapples with corruption, and decay ceases. It purifies the sources of disease.

2d. Cod Liver Oil is Nature's best assistant in resisting Consumption. It is at once a food, a tonic, a purifier, and a healer. It braces up and supplies the vital forces, feeds the wasted system, and enables nature to regain her foothold. For these purposes nothing can compare with Cod Liver Oil.—This is the theory of

CARBOLATED COD LIVER OIL,

As described fully in the inventor's circular, which will be mailed, upon application, to any address.

We cannot afford space to tell the whole story here, or to give the numerous certificates from eminent physicians and well known citizens testifying to the absolutely wonderful results flowing from this great discovery. Suffice it to say, it is curing thousands who supposed themselves to be at death's door.

Willson's Carbolated Oil is scientifically prepared with the purest Carbolic Acid, so combined as to be entirely harmless, with from the celebrated fisheries at Aalesund (Norway) pronounced by physicians the most delicate, efficient Cod Liver Oil in the world.

It is easily taken, tolerated by the weakest stomachs, digests readily, never becomes rancid, and is almost entirely free from the usual disagreeable characteristics of Cod Liver Oil.

For every use of Cod Liver Oil Mr. Willson's discovery is of the greatest value.

For the safe internal administration of Carbolic Acid, Mr. Willson's method of combining it with Cod Liver Oil is absolutely necessary.

WILLSONS

Carbolated Cod Liver Oil!

Is a specific and Radical Cure for

CONSUMPTION

And Scrofulous Diseases.

Remember the name, "Willson's Carbolated Cod Liver Oil," It comes in large wedge-shaped bottles, bearing the inventor's signature, and is sold by the best druggists.

Prepared by J. H. WILLSON, 83 John St., New York.

Sold by all druggists.

...The Peak & Praeger Concert Combination gave another excellent entertainment last evening at the Opera House, but to a somewhat smaller audience than greeted them the night before. The fact is the amusement business has been overdone here for the past two weeks. After a few evenings of rest people's appetites will sharpen up, and they will relish a right good entertainment.

...Besides the improvements to the Bethel Church, of which we spoke a few days ago, a new roof is being put upon the entire building, which is of a much steeper pitch than the old one, and will greatly improve the appearance of the structure, giving the roof a shape more in keeping with the tower and spire. When completed the outside of the church will be comely and tasteful in appearance, and we understand the inside is to be improved so as to be in keeping with the exterior.

...Many of our citizens will read with regret the announcement that Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Moore are going to leave our city for Decatur, Mr. Moore having accepted the position of book-keeper in the Decatur National Bank. Mr. and Mrs. Moore will be missed by a large circle of friends and acquaintances who have become warmly attached to them during their residence in our city. Our loss will be Decatur's gain; and we wish Mr. and Mrs. Moore abundant prosperity in their new home.—Bloomington Pantagraph.

A few extra copies may be had by calling at the REPUBLICAN office.

...Tidings from the east in regard to manufacturing establishments are more encouraging within a day or two. Some large concerns which had cut down their running time nearly one-half are coming to nearly full time, and some which had talked of stopping entirely are preparing to go on as usual, and it is now hoped that there will be no very general stopping of large establishments. We hope there may be no suspension of work in manufactories in this part of the country.

...The Paris & Decatur Railroad Co's. new depot will present a very fine front at the end of East Main street. No improvement made in the town this season will do more to better the appearance of its locality than will this depot building. It is in full view for the entire length of East Main street, and cannot fail to attract attention from anyone passing on that thoroughfare. It presents that locality in most pleasing contrast with the appearance it presented formerly

Dr. Cooper, of Oakley, has received a very valuable present from the Grangers of Missouri. It has attracted a great deal of interest among those who have seen it, and as a souvenir of the late election is quite valuable. It will remain on exhibition at our office for a few days.

In Search of Health.—Our veteran postmaster, Gen. I. C. Pugh, left this morning for Clifton Springs, N. Y. If the change proves beneficial to his health he will remain all winter.

Railroad Officials.—The President and Directors of the T., W. & W. railroad left Decatur yesterday noon by special train for Pekin, thence they go to Bloomington, and from there to Toledo. They had a splendid out-fit, their coach being one constructed for the use of the Directors, and to be used on special occasions.

Real Estate Transfers.—The following transfers of real estate have been filed for record in the recorder's office of Macon county since our last report. We give only such transfers as are made by warranty deed:

Richard Higgins to Wm S Nichols, lot 7, block 5, Higgins' Addition to Decatur; Oct 28, 1873—$225.

Samuel Rea to Lewis Shutz, se qr ne qr sec 17, town 16, range 3 east; Nov 1, 1873—$1,400.

John Gibney to Patrick O'Brien, w hf nw qr sec 21, town 17, range 1 west; Sept 22, 1873—$1,600.

On a Spree.—The wind got on another bender last night and went tearing about town like a lunatic. Signs, windows and doors all shook vigorously, and had their fastenings pretty thoroughly tested. Toward morning matters quieted down somewhat, and this morning the sun got up about the usual time, and soon smiled as pleasantly as if there had been no fuss in the family of elements during the night.

Lost,—Between Eckart's and the old square, a buggy robe, with figure of a tiger in the middle. The finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving it at Dr. Chenoweth's, on West Main street.

Justice's Court.—In Justice Baker's court yesterday, Charles R. Chowning was fined three dollars and cost for assault upon his wife.

Chowning was also arraigned in the same court yesterday upon a warrant sworn out by his wife, charging him with threatening her life. After hearing the case the court held him under one hundred dollars bond to answer at the next term of the circuit court. In default of bail he was committed to jail.

Badly Hurt.—On Friday last a man whose name we failed to learn was seriously hurt in the head on the Gilman, Clinton & Springfield railroad by the cars running against him and knocking him down. He is lying in an unconscious state at the house of a friend living about three miles west of Forsyth. He is not expected to live.

Ladies' Furs, Gent's Furs, Ear Muffs, Fur Gloves, Buck Goods, and a splendid assortment of Carriage Lap Robes, at

KEELER'S HAT STORE,

Improvements Near Harristown.—We know of no locality in the county where during these hard times more substantial improvements have been made than at and near Harristown. The school house there has been enlarged and otherwise improved, at an expense of $1,500. Dr. Ferguson has built a new house, 16x28, at a cost of $600. Walter Turner, two miles from town, has erected one of the most substantial farm houses to be found in the county, at a cost of $5,000. Henry Pickrell has improved his house to the tune of $1,500. Milton Clark has erected a brick house on his farm, seven miles east of Harristown, at a cost of $1,000. Messrs. Lovington & Lanker were the architects, and Messrs. Sollars & Co. and A. C. Cornman, of this city, did the plastering and painting on nearly all the above. We are glad to chronicle these facts, and are also glad that our farmer friends can indulge in such fine improvements.

Personal.—Hon. J. G. Cannon was in town yesterday, and favored us with a call. He expects to start for Washington about the 20th inst.

A. J. Alden, Esq., who formerly adorned the press of Southern Illinois, and who now holds the important and lucrative office of enrolling and engrossing clerk of the State Senate, dropped in on us yesterday. "Jack" has been wandering off into new and strange paths, having sunk from a life of honest poverty in the newspaper business until he has reached the common level. He is now a member of the firm of G. M. Alden & Co., flour and commission merchants, Cairo, Ill. We trust he may find his new occupation as pleasant as the old one, and far more lucrative.

Lost,—Between the residence of Mr. Close, on Prairie street, and East William street, a brown Fur Cape. The finder will confer a favor and be suitably rewarded by leaving it at this office. 11 d2

The Writing on the Wall.—Those fellows who imbibe "benzine" to such an extent as to cause their knees to smite together, as did Belshazzar's, if they will take pains to notice cannot fail to see a hand-writing on the wall which just as plainly indicates their doom as the "Mene, Mene, Tekel, Upharsin," written upon the walls of the banqueting room of the Babylonish prince predicted his overthrow. A vigorous constitution, iron nerves, and peculiar temperament may postpone the final wreck, but come it will—it is only a question of time. Whisky is bound to master nine out of ten men that tamper with it, and young men will do well to serve an injunction upon their appetites while they are within control.

A Wise Move.—It would seem that the flocks of wild geese that have been passing over town on their southward journey for a day or two past, were none too soon in changing their quarters. Cold weather follows close upon them, and they will need make rapid progress to keep out of its way. These chilling blasts from the north make a fellow sing "O that I had wings."

Careful Attention.—Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder and Special Flavorings, are by careful manipulation, freed entirely from the principles which render bread, cakes, &c., inadmissible with persons suffering with disordered digestion. We earnestly hope that all those who deal in Flavoring Extracts and Baking Powder, will take a supply of DR. PRICE'S and make their benefits known, they are sure to be appreciated by all their customers.

Musical Institute!

I WISH TO INFORM MY FRIENDS, and the Musical Public, that the fall term having commenced I am prepared to receive pupils, and it is desired that those who wish to take Lessons in Music!

In any of its branches, will leave their names at the bank of Messrs. Millikin & Co., where I can be found on MONDAY NEXT, OCTOBER 13TH, between the hours of 9 to 12 a. m. and 2 to 4 p. m.

Having entered upon my duties as Organist of the First M. E. Church, I shall make it my pleasant duty to not only elevate musical taste by way of Public Entertainments and Piano Recitals, but also by proper appliance in teaching beginners and advanced pupils. Lessons will be given singly and in classes.

I shall, within a short time, transfer my headquarters to Decatur, and have Champaign and Danville remain branch offices of my Institute.

Hoping to receive the liberal patronage of this city, I remain, very respectfully,

P. L. DREHER,

Director of Music, Graduate of the Leipsic Conservatory, Germany.
